Acting Comptroller of the Currency

U.S. BANK TRUST NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

For the purpose of organizing an association to perform any lawful activities of national banks, the undersigned do enter into the following Articles of Association: —

FIRST. The title of this Association shall be "U.S. Bank Trust National Association."

SECOND. The main office of this Association shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle and State of Delaware. The business of this Association will be limited to that of a national trust bank, and to support activities incidental thereto. This Association will not amend these Articles of Association to expand the scope of or alter its business beyond that stated in this Article Second without the prior approval of the Comptroller of the Currency. Prior to the transfer of any stock of the Association, the Association will seek the prior approval of the appropriate federal depository institution regulatory agency.

THIRD. The board of directors of the Association shall consist of not less than five nor more than 25 persons, the exact number to be fixed and determined from time to time by resolution of a majority of the shareholders at any annual or special meeting thereof. A majority of the board of directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any directors' meeting. Each director shall own common or preferred stock of this Association with an aggregate par, fair market, or equity value of not less than $1,000.00, as of either (i) the date of purchase, (ii) the date the person became a director, whichever is more recent. Any combination of common or preferred stock of this Association or U.S. Bancorp may be used.

Any vacancy in the board of directors may be filled by action of a majority of the remaining directors between meetings of shareholders. The board of directors may not increase the number of directors between meetings of shareholders to a number that (1) exceeds by more than two the number of directors last elected by shareholders where the number was fifteen or less; and (2) exceeds by more than four the number of directors last elected by shareholders where the number was sixteen or more, but in no event shall the number of directors exceed twenty-five.

Terms of directors, including directors selected to fill vacancies, shall expire at the next regular meeting of shareholders at which directors are elected, unless the directors resign or are removed from office.

Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director shall continue to serve until his or her successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors and his or her position is eliminated.

Honorary or advisory members of the board of directors, without voting power or power of final decision in matters concerning the business of this Association, may be appointed by resolution of a majority of the full board of directors, or by resolution of shareholders at any annual or special meeting. Honorary or advisory directors shall not be counted for purposes of determining the number of directors of this Association or the presence of a quorum in connection with any board action, and shall not be required to own qualifying shares.

FOURTH. There shall be an annual meeting of the shareholders to elect directors and transact whatever other business may be brought before the meeting. It shall be held at the main office or any other convenient place the board of directors may designate, on the day of each year specified therefore in the bylaws, or if that day falls on a legal holiday in the State in which this Association is located, on the next following banking day. If no election is held on the day fixed, or in event of a legal holiday, an election may be held on any subsequent day within sixty days of the day fixed, to be designated by the board of directors, or, if the directors fail to fix the day, by shareholders representing two-thirds of the shares issued and outstanding. In all cases at least ten-days advance notice of the meeting shall be given to the shareholders by first class mail.

A director may resign at any time by delivering written or oral notice to the board of directors, its chairperson, or to this Association, which resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

A director may be removed by shareholders at a meeting called to remove him or her, when notice of the meeting stating that the purpose or one of the purposes is to remove him or her is provided, if there is a failure to fulfill one of the affirmative requirements for qualification, or for cause; provided, however, that a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him or her under cumulative voting is voted against his or her removal.

FIFTH. The authorized amount of capital stock of this Association shall be 10,000 shares of common stock of the par value of one-hundred dollars ($100.00) each; but said capital stock may be increased or decreased from time to time, according to the provisions of the laws of the United States.

No holder of shares of the capital stock of any class of this Association shall have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription to any shares of any class of stock of this Association, whether now or hereafter authorized, or to any obligations convertible into stock of this Association, issued, or sold, nor any right of subscription to any thereof other than such, if any, as the board of directors, in its discretion may from time to time determine and at such price as the board of directors may from time to time fix.

Unless otherwise specified in these Articles of Association or required by law, (1) all matters requiring shareholder action, including amendments to the articles of Association must be approved by shareholders owning a majority voting interest in the outstanding voting stock, and (2) each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote per share.

Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any meeting is the close of business on the day before the first notice is mailed or otherwise sent to the shareholders, provided that in no event may a record date be more than seventy days before the meeting.

SIXTH. The board of directors shall appoint one of its members president of this Association and one of its members chairperson of the board. The board of directors shall also have the power to appoint one or more vice presidents, a secretary who shall keep minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and be responsible for authenticating the records of this Association, and such other officers and employees as may be required to transact the business of this Association. A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers if authorized by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

The board of directors shall have the power to:

- (1) Define the duties of the officers, employees, and agents of this Association.
- (2) Delegate the performance of its duties, but not the responsibility for its duties, to the officers, employees, and agents of this Association.
- (3) Fix the compensation and enter into employment contracts with its officers and employees upon reasonable terms and conditions, consistent with applicable law.
- (4) Dismiss officers and employees.

- (5) Require bonds from officers and employees and to fix the penalty thereof.
- (6) Ratify written policies authorized by this Association's management or committees of the board.
- (7) Regulate the manner in which any increase or decrease of the capital of this Association shall be made; provided, however, that nothing herein shall restrict the power of shareholders to increase or decrease the capital of this Association in accordance with law, and nothing shall raise or lower from two-thirds the percentage required for shareholder approval to increase or reduce the capital.
- (8) Manage and administer the business and affairs of this Association.
- (9) Adopt bylaws, not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Association, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of this Association.
- (10) Amend or repeal bylaws, except to the extent that the articles of Association reserve this power in whole or in part to shareholders.
- (11) Make contracts.
- (12) Generally to perform all acts that are legal for a board of directors to perform.

SEVENTH. The board of directors shall have the power to change the location of the main office to any other place within the limits of the City of Wilmington without the approval of the shareholders, and shall have the power to establish or change the location of any branch or branches of this Association to any other location permitted under applicable law, without the approval of the shareholders, subject to approval by the Comptroller of the Currency.

EIGHTH. The corporate existence of this Association shall continue until terminated according to the laws of the United States.

NINTH. The board of directors of this Association, or any three (3) or more shareholders owning, in the aggregate, not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock of this Association, may call a special meeting of shareholders at any time. Unless otherwise provided by the bylaws or the laws of the United States, or waived by shareholders, a notice of the time, place, and purpose of every annual and special meeting of the shareholders shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed at least ten, and no more than sixty, days prior to the date of the meeting to each shareholder of record at his/her address as shown upon the books of this Association. Unless otherwise provided by these Articles of Association or the bylaws, any action requiring approval of shareholders must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting.

TENTH. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action as taken shall be signed by all the shareholders or directors entitled to vote with respect to the matter thereof. Such action shall be effective on the date on which the last signature is placed on the writing, or such earlier date as is set forth therein.

ELEVENTH. Meetings of the board of directors or shareholders, regular or special, may be held by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can simultaneously hear each other, and participation in such meeting by such aforementioned means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

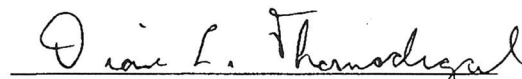

TWELFTH. These Articles of Association may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the shareholders by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of this Association, unless the vote of the holders of a greater amount of stock is required by law, and in that case by the vote of the holders of such greater amount. This Association's board of directors may propose one or more amendments to these Articles of Association for submission to the shareholders.

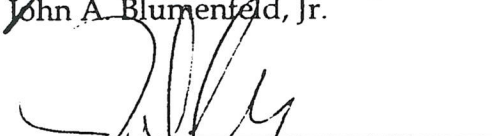

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 25th day of May, 2000.
